Twelve members traveled the back roads to Sedona on March 4, staying two nights at the Hilton Vacation Club Ridge in Sedona, which was a wonderful location to visit the surrounding area. We stopped with our lunches at Lake Roosevelt, which is a pristine place located just northwest of Globe. We had a scenic drive through mountains with snow as we dropped down to Sedona's altitude. A typical vintage machine shop and a replica Model T assembly line completed the tour.

The group then adjourned to the award-winning restaurant Mi Nidito in historic South Tucson for lunch, where we were welcomed by Edgar, the manager. The service was excellent and the food was delicious.

Twelve club members enjoyed an afternoon relaxing at Old Pueblo Wine Cellars tasting five of their wines. This boutique winery combines the pairing of grape vines growing alongside iconic desert flora such as saguaro cacti and jumping cholla. Old Pueblo Cellars has several distinctive features in creating their wines: natural wine making process, sulfite-free, organic, and vegan friendly.

The tasting room was a cozy and comfortable setting, surrounded by manicured cactus gardens for a picturesque backdrop for our wine tasting experience. Afterwards we enjoyed an Italian lunch at Vero Amore restaurant at Dove Mountain.

Jaguar Club members had the opportunity to tour the Tucson Police Dept. Crime Lab. The Crime Lab, founded in 1960, is the oldest crime lab in Arizona. Key highlights of the tour included Latent Prints Forensic Biology/DNA, Computer/Electronic Media Forensics, Controlled Substances, Trace Chemicals, Toxicology, Arson and Explosives, Firearms.

Overall, the visit provided the club with a deeper appreciation for the sophisticated scientific work being conducted to support criminal investigations in Tucson. Agua Caliente Park Tour

May 17, 2024

A small number of the Jaguar Club members visited Agua Caliente Park on May 17. The park is a serene 101-acre oasis nestled in the heart of Tucson, Arizona. We were greeted by Ellen Saltonstall, our docent for the day's tour. The park's name, which translates to "hot water" in Spanish, aptly describes the soothing atmosphere created by the natural water features and the three tranquil ponds.

One of the highlights of a visit to Agua Caliente Park is the opportunity to observe the abundant wildlife in their natural habitat. The park offers a peaceful escape from city life. Agua Caliente Park is a special place in Tucson's history, as it was added to the National Register of Historic Places in 2009. After our park visit we all headed to Barnyard Craffthouse & Eatery for a great lunch.

A special thanks to Ellen for the outstanding tour she provided during the Jag Club visit to Agua Caliente. Her enthusiasm for nature, deep understanding of the park history, geology, and diverse ecosystem made our visit truly knowledgeable. Bob Ciciauch
